Welcome!

We are enthused to present the 2010-2011 Season for your enjoyment. Your support as a season subscriber is key to the 50th year. Lake City Playhouse fulfills a variety of needs within our community. We entertain and enlighten you with exciting and thought provoking shows year-round. We provide local artists the venue and guidance necessary to perform and demonstrate their talents. We foster a safe and proactive environment for young children to develop self-expressive skills and confidence to thrive in our community. This is all possible due to your support, both financially and physically. We are wholeheartedly appreciative of all you do for us as well as other local community minded organizations. As we transition through our 50th season, we remember our history while using positive momentum to create another 50 years of collaborative and admirable art.

Sincerely,

George Green

50th Season! 2010 - 2011

A country suppressed — a woman motivated. This is the story of how Eva Peron inspired the creation of a new Argentina.

Lyrics By: Tim Rice

Music by: Andrew Lloyd Webber

Season Opener - Musical
Sept. 17 - Oct. 10

Romantic Comedy
Feb. 18 - Mar. 6

On a cold, winter night, all is not what it seems in the town of Almost, Maine. As the northern lights hover in the sky, residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and hilarious ways.

By: John Cariani

Under the care of physician Frederick Treves, the deformed Joseph (a.k.a John) Merrick evolves from an object of pity to a favorite of the aristocracy only to be denied his dream of becoming a man like any other.

By: Bernard Pomerance

Drama
Oct. 29 - Nov. 14

Drama
Mar. 25 - April 3

A contemporary slant of the familiar story of Hester Prynne, a woman who gives birth after committing adultery and struggles to create a new life of repentance and dignity.

By: Phyllis Nagy

Based on the book by: Nathaniel Hawthorne

The Dumont Television Network is featuring Kaye, Peggy, Cheryl and Donna on its weekly broadcast.

It's Christmas in Muncie - and everyone is there. A Taffeta Christmas is a classic hometown Christmas, the way it used to be!

By: Rick Lewis

Musical
Dec. 3 - 19

Comedy
April 22 - May 8

A dysfunctional group of Southerners gather when the patriarch of the Turpin family kicks the bucket. The struggle to get him buried stirs up some hilarious mayhem.

By: David Bottrell and Jesse Jones

Companionship, hopes and dreams are what bond the men of the Great Depression together. Those needs and ideals are compromised by tragedy in this literary classic.

By: John Steinbeck

Drama
Jan. 14 - 30

Season Close - Musical
May 27 - June 19

If you liked Evita, Big River, Les Miserables and Westside Story, then you're going to love Urinetown. It's all those and more rolled into one. Don't be fooled by the title, this musical parody is pure fun!
